Brookstone goes to town

In 1975 over 20,000 visitors came to our country sales showroom in Peterborough. Most were willing to travel hundreds of miles, and we reasoned that a metropolitan store would be an even greater attraction.

So, this past fall, we opened our second retail store in Boston. The debut was such a smash hit that our aisles were crowded to overflowing from opening day to Christmas.

Things aren't quite so hectic now, and we'd like to invite you to pay a visit to 29 School Street, right next to Old City Hall and smack on Boston's historic Freedom Trail.

Each and every product that's in both our Gift Catalog and renowned Tool Catalog is attractively displayed, just as in our Peterborough store. You're encouraged to examine them to your heart's content. And if you have a question, our knowledgeable sales people will answer it cheerfully.

You're invited — when you come to Boston, come to Brookstone!
